Summer Food Program

FREE

The Youth Summer Food Program provided by the California Department of Education Nutrition Services Grant is offered Monday - Friday, June 16 - August 22. This program is free for youth ages 18 and younger. Contact a park location listed on page 1 for lunch serving time and menu. The number of meals served is limited to a first-come, first-served basis. The Summer Food Program is held at all community centers listed on page 1 (excluding Eric M. Solander and Janet Goeske) and Patterson Park, Lincoln Park.

Riverside Youth Opportunity Center (YOC)

NOW OPEN!

The City's first Youth Opportunity Center (YOC) provides a one-stop shop for Riverside youth to obtain job and social skill development that will lead to successful job placement.

Located at Bobby Bonds Park (2060 University Avenue), the center focuses on providing youth between the ages of 14 - 22 the skills necessary to obtain living wage jobs that will allow them to independently provide for themselves and their future families, and to become positive influences within the community. Programs and services presented at the YOC will be offered through a collaborative effort between the City, school district, colleges and universities, private sector businesses and community-based organizations. For a listing of the YOC's classes and events contact 826.2272 or visit www.riversideca.gov/park\_rec.

Eric M. Solander Resource Center at Bryant Park

The Solander Center's mission is to decrease risk factors in the lives of children five and under that may lead to the development of violent behaviors that are detrimental to children, their families and the community. Within the Solander Center are the WIC Office, Arlanza Child Development Center and the Solander/Arlanza Youth and Family Resource Center. The WIC Office provides nutrition services and parent education for expectant mothers and children five and under. The Arlanza Child Development Center provides children 3 - 5 years of age affordable preschool. Parenting classes, family counseling, English as a Second Language (ESL) (also available at Alvorad Community Adult School) 509.5010, WIC Immunization and Childcare licensing classes are also provided.

Center hours are 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Monday - Friday. For services and referrals to a variety of social service programs, contact 351.2031 or visit www.riversideca.gov/park\_rec.

Project BRIDGE

Project BRIDGE (Building Resources for the Intervention and Deterrence of Gang Engagement) is a gang prevention, intervention and suppression program, the goal of which is to reduce the incidence of youth gang violence, gang membership, and gang related activities in the City of Riverside. This program provides various services to participants between the ages of 12 - 22. For more information or to refer a youth, please contact Program Coordinator Socorro Huerta at 715.3430. Project BRIDGE is located in the new Youth Opportunity Center at 2060 University Avenue.
